

In consideration of the rights granted to me by my selection to participate in Santa Barbara Premier Water Polo Club activities, I consent to abide by the rules of conduct below. I understand these rules apply to my behavior during all club activities at all locations. The Santa Barbara Premier Water Polo Club values excellent behavior, and therefore wish to underline the positive behavior of all athletes, and state our expectations of conduct.

I also understand that if I violate any of the following rules, I may be subject to whatever disciplinary action is deemed appropriate by the coach and the club. The consequences for violating the rules on club sponsored activities will include:

1. Sitting out one or more meets, games, or practices.
2. Being sent home immediately from meets or games at personal expense for serious offenses or repeated minor infractions.
3. Being terminated from membership in the program.

Inappropriate behavior will neither be condoned nor tolerated.

The following actions will be considered serious offenses in section one above:

1. Violation of any specific policies, regulations, or procedures of the club whether written or unwritten.
2. Inappropriate conduct as determined by customarily accepted behavior.
3. Physical, verbal, racial or sexual intimidation of any individual.
4. Disregarding instructions given by the coach or duly appointed guardians or chaperones.
5. Physical damage to a facility or theft of items from a room or from another person. (Restitution will be a required part of any penalty imposed.)
6. Illegal transport, possession, or use of drugs, tobacco, or controlled substances.
7. Any action considered being an offense under federal, applicable state or local laws/ordinances.

All parents and guardians will discuss the club's expectations and possible consequences with their son or daughter before any trips.

Parent/Guardians' Code of Conduct

In consideration of the rights granted to my child by their selection for participation in Santa Barbara Premier Water Polo Club activities, I consent to abide by the rules of conduct below. I understand these rules apply to my behavior during all club activities at all locations. I understand if I violate any of the following rules, my child or children are subject to whatever disciplinary action is deemed appropriate by the club. The consequences for violating the rules include termination or suspension of membership of my child or children in the club, limitations on me or my children's participation in club activities or the filing of an appropriate judicial restraining order.

The following will be considered significant violations of the rules:

1. Violations of club policies, regulations, or procedures.
2. Criticizing or questioning coaching decisions with regard to practice or event participation.
3. Inappropriate conduct as determined by customarily accepted behavior.
4. Physical, verbal, racial, or sexual intimidation of any coach, athlete, official, or individual.
5. Harassing a coach or employee of the club while in the performance of their duties.
6. Failure to meet the financial obligations or make appropriate arrangements.
